

New mains distribution system installed with rewiring carried out throughout building.

The George Hotel is one of the most prestigious locations of Scotlands Capital. The George Edinburgh is situated in the heart of the city, taking prime position on George street.

The George Edinburgh has been titled as an elegant Grade 2 listed building equipped with business facilities such as 8 conference centres and events suites.

Works were carried out with minimum disruption to the client with power shut downs organised in conjunction with the routine of the house.

New mains distribution system installed with new Distribution boards located through out main house and out building. New emergency lighting and fire alarms system installed

